

Let's Go to the Booth with All Our Might

-By Jun Pei

The Sun is rising,
and spirits are high.
The wind is flowing
with Red, Blue and White.

The Tuesday is coming,
a dramatic sight.
Let's go to the booth,
with all our might !

Go in the morning
when the day is bright.
Or go in the dark
under the moon light.
Let's go to the booth,
with all our might !

Over the years
we have felt the slight.
Ignorance is the cause
of all our plight.
Let's go to the booth
to do it right !

When the day is over
the excitement ignite,
the satisfaction will be
the day's highlight.
Let's go to the booth
with all our might !
